

Lake Kyoga

- Lake Kyoga has been visited a couple of times over the years and we drove north of the lake on the way to Soroti, Otubio and Lira

The first visit brought unity to a divided church and new came through the same day of God's work among the people. The lake is large so the second visit to a new church there which was north of Kamuli

